The Road Ahead

To see beneath the surface of illusion
Is to expose the darker aspects of Shadow, which influence decisions
One makes, whether conscious of

It or not. Unless a fortified effort is Made to break free of negative cycles
That keep one stuck within patterns
Of behaviour, one has since outgrown:

The same patterns of divisive thought
Will continue to dominate the mind.
Unless one can see the illusion for
What it is. No amount of bypassing

Can subdue the inner turmoil. As Certain lessons are necessary for Growth to occur. While it may prove
Difficult to process, the wisdom gained.

Creates the change that is necessary

To live a life unburdened by yesterday's

Hardship. The road ahead, and the Opportunities that unfold from a mind

That is clear and focused. Prepares the Way for new blessings to enter one's life.

Each day providing a new opportunity

To learn from the lessons of the past.
